

_____ name
Constitution and Articles of the Confederation
Notes 4.4.1

Articles of the Confederation:

1. Articles of Confederation were based on the ruling of whom?
2. What is sovereignty?
3. What were each of the colonies fighting for?
4. Why did colonial assemblies develop a confederation?
5. According to the Articles of Confederation where was it believed power should come from?
 - b. According to the Articles of Confederation where was it believed power should not come from?
6. Who provided the model for the Articles of Confederation?
7. How much power did each state get according to the Articles of Confederation?
8. List three responsibilities states had according to the Articles of Confederation.
9. According to the Articles of Confederation what could the Confederation Congress not do?
10. According to the Articles of Confederation what could the Confederation Congress do?
11. According to the Articles of Confederation what did the National Government have the right to do?

12. According to the Articles of Confederation who was in charge of the government?

13. What did not exist under the Articles of Confederation?

Constitution:

1. Why was the Constitution written?

2. What is the Constitution based on?

3. What important words start the Constitution?

4. What is federalism?

5. What makes the National Congress?

6a. What is the Legislative branch of the government?

6b. According to the Constitution how is Congress made?

7. According to the Constitution how is the Senate made?

8. According to the Constitution how is the House of Representatives made?

9. How many Representatives does South Carolina have?
10. What is separated in the Constitution?
11. Who leads the Executive branch?
12. Who is in charge of the judicial system?
13. How were the Articles of Confederation like the Constitution?
14. How were the Articles of Confederation different from the Constitution?
15. What is a check and balance system?